

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SOUTHERN DIVISION

ROVI GUIDES, INC.

Plaintiff(s),

v.

COMCAST CORPORATION, et al.

Defendant(s).

CASE NO:

2:19-cv-00275-DOC-FFM

INITIAL STANDING ORDER
FOLLOWING ASSIGNMENT OF CIVIL CASE TO JUDGE CARTER

This case has been assigned to the calendar of Judge David O. Carter. Whenever a new civil case is assigned to Judge Carter, the Court issues this Initial Standing Order. It lays out some of the Judge's rules and expectations that litigants should be familiar with from the beginning of their case. In addition to this Initial Standing Order, litigants are required to follow the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules of the Central District of California.<sup>1</sup>

The Court ORDERS as follows:

I. Court Appearances

The parties must appear in person for hearings and conferences before the Court. The Court does not permit telephonic appearances.

Unless a party is representing him or herself, parties shall be represented by lead counsel at all court appearances, including scheduling conferences.

Under no circumstances should counsel, or a party if the party is appearing pro se, fail to appear at a court appearance unless their appearance has been waived by prior order of the Court. Even if a settlement has been reached, counsel for all parties, or the party if appearing pro se, must appear at court appearances until a stipulation of dismissal signed by all parties has been lodged with the Court.

II. Scheduling

Pursuant to Rule 16(b), the Court will set a scheduling conference and issue a scheduling order in each case. Litigants should familiarize themselves with the Court's standard Order Setting Scheduling Conference and the Court's standard Scheduling Order & Order re: Pretrial and Trial Procedures, which describe the typical schedule and procedures used in this Court.<sup>2</sup>

The Court is flexible in setting initial dates. Therefore, Parties should meet and confer to select mutually agreeable dates. The Court strongly encourages Parties to stipulate to the initial schedule, and endeavor to accommodate counsel's previously scheduled dates that produce good faith calendar conflicts. Counsel are encouraged to reference the Central District's Civility and Professionalism Guidelines, which can be found on the Court's website.

III. Continuances and Extensions of Deadlines

This Court has a strong interest in adhering to scheduled dates. Changes in dates are disfavored. Trial dates set by the Court are firm and will rarely be changed, except that the Court may advance the trial date up to two weeks.

Therefore, any request, whether by application or stipulation, to continue the date of any matter before this Court must be supported by a detailed explanation of the grounds for the requested continuance or extension of time. Without compelling factual support, requests to continue dates set by this Court will not be approved. Proposed stipulations extending scheduling dates do not become effective unless and until this Court so orders.

IV. Motions

Counsel should note the timing and service requirements of Local Rules 6 and 7 and its subparts including:

- (1) Rule 6–1: Notice of motion and the moving papers must be filed and served twenty–eight (28) days before the noticed hearing date, unless the notice is served by mail, in which case service is required thirty–one (31) days prior to the noticed hearing date;
- (2) Rule 7–9: Opposing papers shall be filed twenty–one (21) calendar days before the hearing date; and
- (3) Rule 7–10: Reply papers, if any, shall be filed fourteen (14) calendar days before the hearing date.
- (4) Rule 7–11: If the hearing date is continued, the deadlines for filing opposing and reply papers are automatically extended unless the Court orders otherwise.

Counsel must comply with the timing requirements of the Local Rules so that chambers can properly prepare for motion matters.

Parties should note, the Court will only entertain one Motion for Summary Judgment from each party, typically after discovery is closed.

V. Ex Parte Applications

Ex parte applications are solely for extraordinary relief and should be used with discretion. See Mission Power Eng'g Co. v. Continental Cas. Co., 883 F. F. Supp. 488 (C.D. Cal. 1995). In this Court's experience, ex parte applications

1 “are nearly always improper.” In re Intermagnetics Am., Inc., 101 B.R. 191,
2 192–93 (C.D. Cal. 1989). The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Local Rules
3 “contemplate that regular noticed motions are most likely to produce a just result.”
4 Mission Power, 883 F. Supp. at 491.

5 Ex parte applications that fail to conform to Local Rule 7–19 and 7–19.1, 6 including a statement of opposing counsel’s position, will not be considered except
7 on a specific showing of good cause. Concurrently with service of the ex parte
8 papers by electronic service, facsimile, or personal service, the moving party shall 9 notify the opposition that opposing papers must be filed no later than twenty–four 10 (24) hours following service. If opposing counsel does not intend to oppose the 11 ex parte application, counsel must inform the Courtroom Deputy Clerk by 12 telephone or email as soon as possible.

13 VI. Jury Demand

14 Litigants who are entitled to a jury trial and who wish to have a jury trial are 15 reminded to file and serve a jury demand in accordance with Federal Rule of Civil 16 Procedure 38.

17 VII. Applications to File Documents Under Seal

18 There is a strong presumption that the public has a right of access to records
19 in civil cases. For non–dispositive motions, the party seeking to maintain the 20 confidentiality of the document(s) or portions thereof must show good cause. For 21 dispositive motions, the party seeking protection must articulate compelling reasons
22 for maintaining the confidentiality of the document(s) and must seek relief that is 23 narrowly tailored to the protected interest. See Pintos v. Pacific Creditors Ass’n, 24 605 F.3d 665, 677–79 (9th Cir. 2010). No document will be filed under seal in its 25 entirety unless it is shown in the application that it is not feasible to file a redacted
26 version for public viewing. Any proposed redactions must be highlighted in the 27 under seal version of the document so that the Court may readily determine what 28 information the party or parties seek to maintain as confidential.

1 In accordance with Local Rule 79–5.1, absent authorization by rule or statute,
2 no case or document(s) may be filed under seal without written application to, and
3 prior approval by, the Court. The existence of a Protective Order, a Stipulated
4 Confidentiality Order, or the like, issued by the assigned Magistrate Judge relating
5 to the treatment of documents produced during discovery, does not constitute a
6 court Order permitting an under seal filing. An application to seal that is based 7 solely on the existence of such an Order will be summarily denied. In addition,
8 reliance upon the parties’ designation of documents as “Confidential,” “Highly 9 Confidential,” “Attorneys’ Eyes Only,” etc. is insufficient. Rather, the party must 10 provide competent evidence explaining why the document(s) should be filed under 11 seal.

12 If the party seeking to file documents under seal (the “filing party”) is not 13 the party with an interest in the sealing/confidentiality of the documents, then the 14 filing party shall provide the interested party with its proposed application to seal
15 at least two (2) business days in advance of any filing. If the interested party seeks 16 to have the documents filed under seal, it shall file a Declaration setting forth
17 competent evidence explaining why the document(s) should be filed under seal.
18 If the interested party fails to file a Declaration within this two–day period, the 19 filing party is relieved of any obligation to file an application to seal and may 20 publicly file the documents along with a Declaration of Compliance with this 21 paragraph.

22 VIII. Settlement

23 If settlement is reached at any time in this litigation, the parties shall 24 immediately notify the Court by telephone, email, or by filing a notice of 25 settlement. Local Rule 40–2.

26 IX. Communication with the Court

27 All appropriate inquiries should be directed to Judge Carter’s Courtroom
28 Deputy Clerk at (714) 338–4543 or DOC_Chambers@cacd.uscourts.gov.

Counsel should not attempt to contact chambers directly. Counsel should list their email addresses and phone numbers on their papers in order to facilitate communication by the Courtroom Deputy Clerk.

X. Notice of this Order

Plaintiff's counsel or plaintiff (if appearing on his or her own behalf) shall immediately serve this Order on all parties, including any new parties to the action. If this case came to the Court by a Notice of Removal, the removing defendant(s) shall serve this Order on all other parties.
